- If appointed, you will be required by state law to file a personal financial disclosure statement with the Washington Public Disclosure Commission (www.pdc.wa.gov).

Councilmember Duties and Responsibilities Description

The City operates under a Council-Mayor form of government. The seven-member City Council serves as the legislative body of the City.

The Camas City Council is the legislative authority of the City of Camas.

The Council is responsible for setting policy, adopting the annual budget, adopting laws, determining the services to be provided and the funding levels for those services, and confirming the Mayor's appointments of citizens to its advisory boards commissions and committees.

The duties of a City Councilmember will likely involve an average minimum commitment of 20-40 hours per month for preparation, participation, and attendance at various meetings and community activities.

Beyond the broad duties previously mentioned, Councilmember duties include, but are not limited to:

- Attendance is required at regular City Council meetings, which are held on the first and third Monday evenings of each month, from 4:30 pm to 9:00 pm and occasionally later.
- From time to time, the City Council or Mayor may call special City Council meetings to handle city business.
- Attendance is also required at the Council's Annual Planning Session usually held over a weekend in January.
- Council members are expected to serve on Council Sub-Committees, regional boards and commissions, and to represent the City Council at various community functions. These various meetings and functions occur normally during the evenings, but may also occur on some weekends and during some weekdays.
- Some travel is expected locally, regionally, and/or within the State of Washington involving various Organizations of which the City of Camas is a member. Council members may also, at their discretion, travel and attend training, education and/or participate in other organizations at the local, regional, state, or in some instances, on the national level. Travel, education and training expenses for local, regional, state and national activities are reimbursed in accordance with City policy applicable to all employees and City officials, subject to the budgetary limit set for each Councilmember and for the City Council as a whole.
- The duties of a City Councilmember will likely involve an average minimum commitment of 20-40 hours per month for preparation, participation, and attendance at various meetings, and community activities.

The stipend for a Councilmember is $769.00 per month plus a $50 per month technology allowance.

Notice: The term of this appointment is anticipated to run January 1, 2018, thru December 3, 2018. The term for this Council position starting December 3, 2018 thru December 31, 2019, will be determined in the November 6, 2018, election. Candidates interested in running for this office, should check with Clark County Elections for the special filing dates. The phone number for the elections department is (360) 397-2345.

SUPPLEMENTAL

Written Questions for Camas Council Candidates

1. Why do you want to serve on the City Council?
2. What experiences, talents or skills would you bring to the Council and community that you would like to highlight?
3. Camas, like many Washington cities, is facing a structural deficit, where expenses grow faster than revenues, due to property tax limitation measures. Explain your views on how the City of Camas should address these budgetary difficulties. Specifically, discuss actions you might encourage to balance revenues and expenditures and the impacts on City services.
4. In your opinion, excluding finances, what are the most significant challenges facing the City of Camas today? How would you propose to address these challenges?
