

CHANGING OF THE GUARD

Officer Jeff Smith retired after serving 24 years with the Camas Police Department. He was active in patrol, investigations, and with the regional mounted patrol unit.

Shop-with-a-Cop

Through a grant-funded program, the Camas Police Department partnered with Wal-Mart to bring a little Christmas cheer to 17 local children. Each child was able to spend $100 to purchase gifts for family members.

2015 EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR

Officer Tim Fellows was named as the Camas Police Department's 2015 Officer of the Year. Tim has been with Camas since 2010 and is currently assigned as the School Resource Officer. Tim interacts well with the schools and helps to create a positive working relationship with our school district.

Propertyroom.com

In 2015 the City of Camas signed up with Propertyroom.com to auction off evidence items and city property. This partnership allows for the routine purging of found or recovered items from the property/evidence rooms. These items are sold online and a percentage of the monies received are sent back to the city for deposit in the general fund. This also provides an avenue for city departments to auction off surplus items and office equipment.

Collisions

VEHICLE PROWL SOLVED

At the end of 2014 and beginning of 2015, Camas officers investigated 20+ vehicle prowl cases. Two people were arrested, search warrants were executed and over 330 stolen items recovered.

Community Leadership

In 2015 the Camas Police Department was awarded the Washington Association of School Administrators Community Leadership Award. The department was nominated for this award by the Camas School District. The award recognizes the extraordinary relationship between the Camas Police Department and the Camas School District.
